

From: joejarrell
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 11/16/01 8:35am
Subject: Microsoft charges

In my opinion, there is little that you can do to adequately fix or punish the Microsoft Corporation, short of fining them their net worth, then disbanding the company when they can't pay their business license fees. I suspect that they have violated the spirit and the letter of laws for many, many years, trampling competition as they encountered it. I became disgusted with them nearly a decade ago.

Joe Jarrell
348 Carter Dr.
Charleston, WV 25306
joe@hornbeam.com